Public Works
Engineering
Australia

The Institute of Public Works Engineering Australia (IPWEA) is a professional organisation providing member services and advocacy for those involved in and delivering public works and engineering services to the community. This lunch is the first in a series of Leadership events to encourage and develop public works professionals in Leadership. At this lunch, our two speakers are going to share some of their thoughts on how to become better leaders and tips on how to advance your careers.

Ross Butler has an international executive and board background in insurance, banking, investments, strategy and governance. He is Chair of the Nelson Marlborough Institute of Technology and Mortgage Link (NZ) Limited, Deputy Chair of GNS Science and Swimming New Zealand. He is a Director of the Property Insight joint venture, Marlborough Lines Limited, Triplejump Limited, Nelson Bays Football, and the Nelson Bays Enterprise Education Cluster. He has his own consulting group, Merlot Limited, which provides interim chief executive, governance, and project services. Ross is well qualified with a BA (Economics) and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investments.

Warren Roberts has been the Chief Executive Officer of the City of Stonnington since April 2009. He has held numerous senior roles in Local Government throughout his 30 years experience. He is a qualified Civil Engineer with further management study.

In 2005 he was recognised by Engineers Australia as one of Australia's 100 most influential engineers and in 2007 received the Municipal Engineering Foundation Award for Excellence.
