The Institute of Public Works Engineering Australia (IPWEA) is a professional organisation providing member services and advocacy for those involved in and delivering public works and engineering services to the community. This lunch is part of a series of Leadership events to encourage and develop public works professionals in Leadership.

At this lunch, Margaret is going to share some of her thoughts on the key challenges facing leaders in the reconstruction phases following natural disasters.

Murrindindi Shire was heavily impacted by the 2009 Black Saturday Bushfires with extensive areas of the Shire burnt and the towns of Kinglake, Narbethong and Marysville destroyed. The reconstruction efforts have been going for over two years and there is extensive works still required.

Margaret Abbey commenced in the role of Chief Executive Officer at Murrindindi Shire Council in June 2010. Margaret sees the long-term financial sustainability of the shire as being her top priority.

Margaret has an Arts Degree with Honors at Monash University, a Masters Degree in Town and Country Planning from Sydney University and has postgraduate qualifications in management from Victoria University.
